When the Reference is called out for final hearing, none appears for the applicant-assessee though duly served. The office endorsement indicates that the paper book is also not filed. Ms Dharmishta Raval, learned Standing Counsel for the Central Government appears for the respondent-authorities.

Since Reference is pending since 1995 and still the applicant at whose instance the reference was made has chosen not to file the paper book, we decline to answer the questions referred for our opinion.
